

ERNST & YOUNG

1. Introduction about EY

a) EY vision 2020 – three pillars

- Focus on winning in the market
- Highest performing teams
- Strengthen global, empower local

EY by the numbers (2015):

- 150 countries
- 212,000 people in the U.S
- 28.7 billion in revenue

By 2020, EY's goal is to be a US$50 billion distinctive professional services organization.

→ many opportunities for growth

b) EY – create your legacy

- career at EY: driven by growth, momentum, and opportunity
- “EY functions as a team”: competitive but supportive

c) Service lines

- Advisory
- Tax (many practices, but prior knowledge/experiences will be helpful for tax advisor)
- Audit
- Transaction advisory services

d) EY cultures

- Difference matters – diversity, inclusiveness, and flexibility
- EYU – training, developing your skills by learning, coaching, and experiencing
- Global mindset link to rich experiences
- Commitment to corporation responsibility to maximize the impacts for positive effects on entrepreneur and future generation

→ Make you career an adventure

II. Opportunities for interns and early-career professionals

a) Freshmen: Western regional conference, 1 day in LA

February 18, 2016

b) Sophomore: Emerging Leader Program, 2 days

c) Junior or Graduating: Fall recruiting, for intern or full-time position

III. Highlights from Q&A

You should have these items in your resume:

Education (GPA included), CPA eligibility

Work experience, volunteer experience

➔ Positive attitude, and adapt to the culture of EY